

This block contains the legend and title block of the drawing. The legend on the left lists various symbols and their corresponding meanings, including different types of lines, hatching patterns, and specific architectural or engineering notations. The title block on the right is a structured grid containing project information such as the drawing title, sheet number, scale, and the names of the project manager and designer.

