

TERMS OF USE

Pictures are submitted to customers and can be used only once and for the agreed purpose mentioned in the picture order form. Any additional use must be agreed on with the City Museum picture archives. Right of use cannot be transferred nor sold to a third party.

When pictures are published, Helsinki City Museum as well as the name of the photographer, artist or author must be mentioned.

Customers must comply with copyright laws and observe protection of privacy when using the pictures.

PUBLICATIONS

Customers are liable to provide the Helsinki City Museum library with a copy of the publication where the museum's photos or object collections appear.

All photos carry a digital copyright notice.

Exif files include technical information about the photograph. IPTC files include information about ownership and saving location.
