An area of 80 centimetres in width that is immediately in front of the business premises and attached to the front of the building can be used for outside serving without a separate compensation, as long as the terrace instructions and contract terms are followed and no fixed structures are set up. However, if the width of the terrace, measured from the front of the building, exceeds 80 cm, compensation is collected from the whole area.

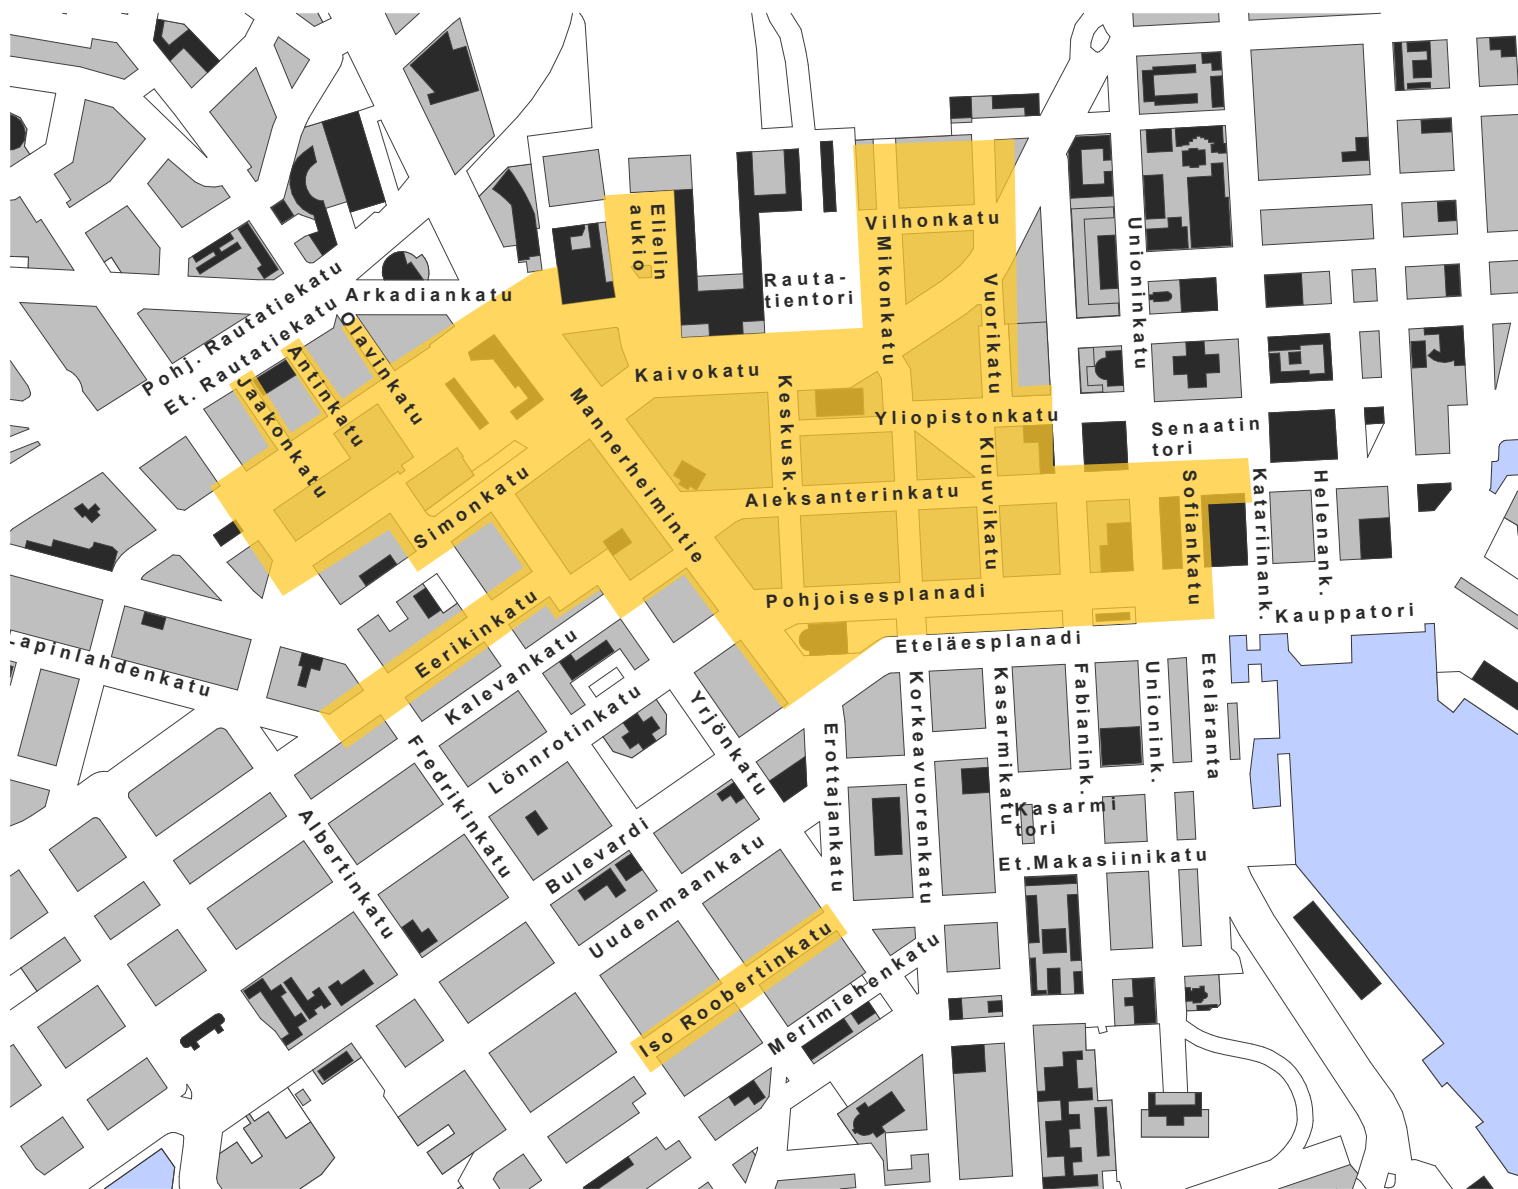

A minimum charge is a rent for one month €/m<sup>2</sup>.

A fine for negligence is €500 + VAT. The principles for fining for negligence are defined in the contract.

All prices are bound to a cost-of-living index.
